Rímske kúpele

- The most popular attraction in Dudince is Rímske kúpele (Roman baths)
- They are carved holes, which were carved by Romans, at least that's what people say
- About 32 bath holes were preserved

Legend about fairy Dudinka

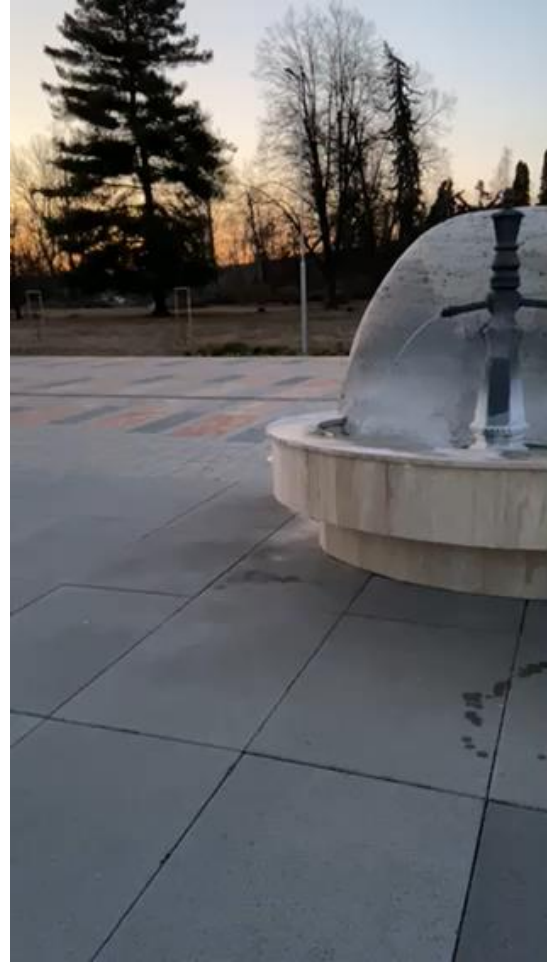

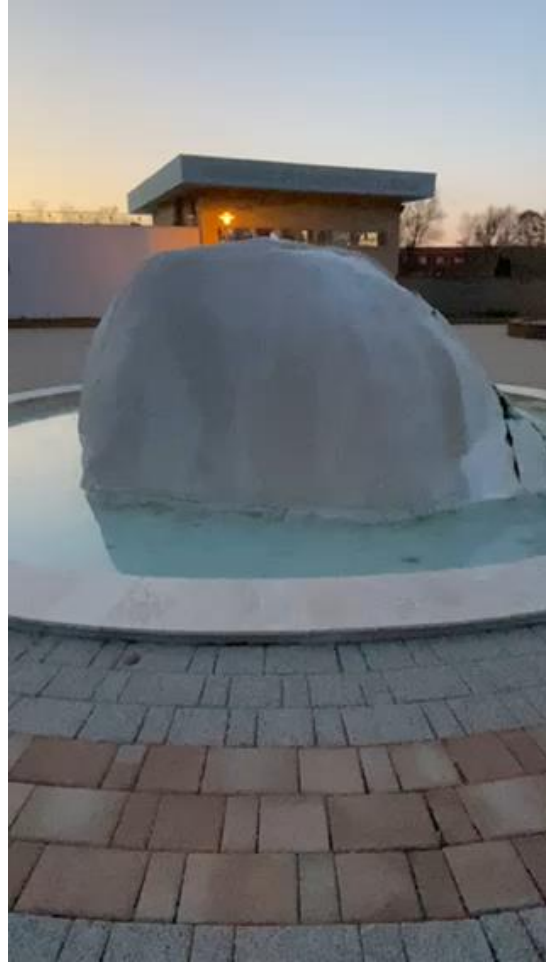

- Roman camp camped near Dudince. Leader of the Romans Aquillius was with his wife and son. His son was ruled by the power of the moon. Aquillius woke up that night and realized his son disappeared. At first he thought that his son was kidnapped by enemies. But later he thought that his son is sleepwalking just like his mother. He issued an order for his soldiers to look after his son. Near the camp he found place with strange smelling springs. He was afraid that his son drowned there. For a long time he couldn't find him. But he heard woman's voice. It was fairy Dudinka. She wanted from him to release all his prisoners. After that she will return his son to him. As an oath he gave her his sword. His son was brought back by healing water, that fairy Dudinka gave him.
